

THE PERCY GRAINGER SOCIETY

In 1978, a Society was formed to encourage research into the life and musical works of the eminent composer-pianist, Percy Grainger (1882–1961). Since that time, the Percy Grainger Society has been active in securing performances, recordings and publication of Grainger's compositions.

WE INVITE YOU TO START/RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP IN THE PERCY GRAINGER SOCIETY

Your Membership Privileges. As a member, you will be in good company and part of a very active organization, both in terms of Grainger performances and in terms of member involvement. We encourage members to participate in projects to promote Grainger.

The Grainger Society Journal, the Grainger Newsletter, Random Round, and other mailings to you will keep you well-informed. The Grainger Society Journal contains articles distinguished by their cultural range and intellectual intensity. Further, the Society Journal includes resource materials: unpublished musical sketches, discographies, bibliographies, plus occasional recollections written by personal friends and colleagues of the composer. In addition to the Society Journal, you will receive Random Round (edited by Barry Peter Ould), and In a Nutshell the Australian newsletter providing details of Grainger activities from the heart of Melbourne, Grainger's birthplace. Newsletters feature updates on meetings, notices of relevant articles in other publications, books being published, new recordings and lectures being given on the subject of Grainger, his music and his world.
